Infusino's Banquet Hall, 3225 Rapids Drive, Racine

Juneteenth Events: Both in Racine and Kenosha. It is an opportunity to meet new people in our communities.

June 11, 2022 The Wisconsin Conservative Digest has a panel of women candidates and speakers talking about law enforcement. This will be held at The Radisson on Mayfair Road

Introduction of Speakers:

Time Keeper: Barb Griffin: Each candidate will be given 15 minutes to speak. Barb will hold up a warning sign at 2 minutes, 1 minutes, and 30 seconds.

Candidates for Secretary of State:

Amy Loudenbeck: She lives in Clinton, WI and graduated from UW-Madison. Ms. Loudenbeck would like Wisconsin to look at a wide range of policy options to utilize the office of Secretary of State that is directly accountable to the voters to ensure election integrity and transparency. She wants to modernize the office and implement fast, secure, electronic processes, and real customer services. She has worked on a panel to represent and fight human trafficking. She worked on a work force and public safety commission.

Jay Schroeder: He went to UW- Stout and has a business degree. He is running to restore election integrity by dissolving the Wisconsin Elections Commission and eliminating election fraud. He will also discuss term limits.

Justin Schmidtka: Justin was unfortunately unable to attend.

Candidate for Wisconsin 64th Assembly District: Ed Hibsch: Happy birthday Ed! ☺ Tom Stanzac and Ken Brown are his campaign managers. District 64 is mostly Kenosha. Ed is running on supporting the working class. He worked his way through college while working full time. He was a psychology major. Election integrity is a huge issue for him along with Back the Badge. He wants to discuss Assembly Bill 229 which addresses when an assembly of people becomes a riot.

Candidate for Wisconsin 63rd Assembly District: Adam Steen: He grew up in Indiana. He worked on the assembly line at John Deere. He has an engineering degree from UW-Madison, a Christian heart, a farmer's backbone, and a family man's wallet. He is running on a secure and transparent election system; to restore excellence in education; rights for the unborn; and constitutional carry. He is running against Robin Vos. Adam's philosophy on voting should be: In person, on paper, and hand count.

Candidate for State Treasurer: John Leiber says he is a true fiscal conservative. He is from Racine and went to UW- Parkside, and then to UW-Madison Law School and graduated at 42 years old. He been involved in politics since 2002. He feels that it is important to keep government small and utilize money responsibly.
